DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This three story high, two-bay wide rowhouse is now covered with formstone. The first story has been altered for commercial purposes. On the left is a large sheet glass window (beneath which is a stone water table; on the right is a deeply recessed glass door with a one piece transom above. Above the sheet glass window and door is a belt of formstone composed of blocks larger than those of the rest of the facade.

Windows are double hung with one-over-one lights, and have flat arches and sills of formstone.

The slightly projecting roof cornice is also covered with formstone.
